

Name 5 Bible Game

Rules:

The first player rolls a die twice to pick the category, then has 60 seconds to name 5 items in that category. The player scores points based on how many correct answers were given, then play moves to the next person. The first player to score 40 points wins the game.

Materials Needed:

1 die
paper & pencil

Scoring:

Number of correct answers:	1	2	3	4	5
Points earned:	1	2	3	4	7

Tips for Game Play:

- Give one another the benefit of the doubt. If an answer given is mostly correct, allow the player to score points for it. Remember, the ultimate purpose of this game is not who wins or who loses, but that everyone who is playing will learn more about the Bible!
- Answers for all categories except 6-6 can be verified using the Bible. For 6-6, use Foxe's Book of Martyrs or internet sources.
- For a shorter game, you may decide as a group (before play begins) to make the winning score either 20 or 30 instead of 40.
- Categories are listed below. The first number comes from the first roll of the die; the second number comes from the second roll.
